Tuafi H.M. Nghixulifwa
MANAGING MEMBER

Tuafi, the sole member has strategic management skills which have seen the company growing from strength to strength. The close co-operation has five people in its employment

Plastiprint is a Windhoek based graphic design and visual communications firm formed 14 years ago. It is wholly owned by a professional Namibian with extensive experience in the industry. The close co-operation is committed to providing highly professional services efficiently and cost effectively. It has been concentrating on laminating, binding, paper and board sales, cutting and photocopying services, and stationery wholesaling. The targeted customers are small- to medium-size companies and walk-in customers.

The Strategic long-term objectives of Plastiprint CC is to grow the business through joint ventures, acquisitions and strategic partnerships through consistent pursuit of meaningful business relationships with experienced and established local and international entrepreneurs.

The short-term objective is to develop local management staff through understudy arrangements with strategic equity partners.

Plastiprint intends to make a significant contribution in the developmental goals of the Republic of Namibia, by mobilizing all available human and natural resources in order to complement the efforts of government in empowering the previously disadvantaged communities. The objectives for the first four years of operation include:

- To develop a grow graphics and stationery agency that will grow in profitability:
- Grow an instantly recognizable brand whose primary goal is to exceed customer's expectations.
- To nurture an organization that provides the target customers with valuable services and provides the owner with a flexible, creative, fun, and profitable business opportunity.

Mission

Plastiprint's mission is to provide the customer with creative and practical graphic design work and visual communication services. We exist to attract and retain customers.

Keys to Success

The keys to success for Plastiprint are:

- Professionalism.
- Creativity.
- Practical insight.
- Enjoyment of the experience.

Plastiprint provides graphic design and visual communication services, laminating, binding, paper cutting and trimming, photo copying and stationery wholesaling to companies, Polytechnic of Namibia Students and other walk-in customers. Other services offered are corporate identity, logos, branding, and packaging.
